THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY April 10th, to MONDAY April 17th, 1749.

Extract of a Letter from BARBADOS, dated February 10, 1748-9.

"WE are here in the utmoſt Conſternation about the French, who are actually ſettling Tobago. Our Governor being inform'd of it by ſome Turtlers from thence, diſpatched Capt. Sayer, of his Majeſty's Ship Richmond, to enquire into the Truth of the Matter, with Orders to prevent it; and to cauſe his Excellency's Commiſſion to be publiſhed there (which aſſerts his Majeſty's Title to the ſaid Iſland) and to affix up Copies thereof in the moſt public Parts of the Iſland. Capt. Sayer diſcovered little more than a bare Deſign of ſettling it; but it ſeems he did not go to the right Bay; for ſoon after the Richmond's Return, we were informed that the Governor of Martinico had tranſported there 600 Men, Soldiers, Maſons, Carpenters, &c. and had raiſed ſeveral Batteries, one of 14 Guns 12 Pounders: Upon which Mr. Greenville ordered Capt. Tyrrell, in the Cheſterfield, the Boſton, Richmond, and Speedwell, to Rocky-Bay, the Place they were ſettling, whoſe Channel being too difficult for our Men of War to enter, Capt. Tyrrell ſeeing two Frigates of 36 Guns each, lying up in the Bay, I ſuppoſe to cover their Works, ſent his Boat in, and ordered the French Commodore on board him, to give an Account of his Buſineſs there, who roundly told him, that he was come to ſettle that Iſland, by Order of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, and that if he was obſtructed therein, he was to make the beſt Defence he could. What Tyrrell's Orders were is not known, but he did not think proper to diſturb them. Upon his Return to this Iſland, the Council and Aſſembly were called; the Reſult of which was, an Expreſs ſailed Yeſterday for London, to acquaint the Government with this Affair, which is of the utmoſt Conſequence to the Nation; for by this Neglect of ours, they ſettle all the unſettled Iſlands immediately, and in caſe of a future War with France, Barbados, Antigua, St. Kitts, &c. muſt neceſſarily throw themſelves under the Protection of the French King; that if the Miniſtry ſhould think of the Affair as we do, and our Expreſs ſhould arrive before the Definitive Articles of Peace are ratified and confirmed, there will be no Peace as yet. About the ſame time arrived here a Veſſel from St. Vincent's, the Capt. of which depoſeth, that he heard a Proclamation read there by a French Officer, and could underſtand French enough, to know that the Subſtance of it was to prohibit the Engliſh, Dutch and Danes, from trading there without a Licence from the General of Martinico, which they might obtain by applying for the ſame, on paying the Sum of 100 l. on pain of forfeiting Veſſel and Cargo, &c. Beſides theſe two Iſlands, they have ſettled and fortified St. Lucia and Dominique. Thus you ſee this wiſe and politic Nation graſping at nothing leſs than the whole Carribbee Iſlands, in order to monopolize the Sugar Trade into their own Hands, which will be no ſmall Step towards their favourite Scheme of Univerſal Monarchy."

The following is an Ordonnance of the General of the French Windward Iſlands in America.

"Charles de Thiebefes de Live de Peſtel de Grimoard, Marquis of Caylus, Knight of the Order of St. John's of Jeruſalem, and of the royal military Order of St. Lewis, Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Ships, his Governor, and Lieutenant-General of the Iſlands of Martinico, Guardaloup, Grande and Petit Terre, Deſeada, Marigallant, the Iſlands of Dominico, St. Lucia, and St. Vincent, Bequira, Candanum, Carricouacon, Grenade, and of the Iſlands and Iſles commonly called the Granadilloes, Tobago, St. Bartholomew, St. Martin, Cayans and the Continent comprehended between the Rivers of the Amazons and Orenoque.

The Iſland of Tobago, commonly called Tobacco, one of thoſe under our Government, indiſputably belonging to his Majeſty, and the Property which he has in it, having been authentically acknowledged by Treaties, no Prince, or ſovereign Power whatever, having laid any Pretenſions to the Sovereignty of the ſame; has obliged us to give no Credit to an Information we have receiv'd, that a ſmall Frigate, calling herſelf Engliſh, and authoriſed by certain pretended Powers, iſſued from the Government of Barbados, ſhould have been, about a Month ago, at the ſaid Iſland of Tobacco, and there clandeſtinely ſtuck up on Trees, in different Parts of the ſame, a pretended Proclamation, importing, that Mr Greenville, Governor of Barbados, who, in the ſame Proclamation, without any Foundation, calls himſelf Governor of St. Lucia, Dominico, St. Vincent's and Tobacco, together with all the other Iſlands, Colonies and Plantations, in America, commonly known and called by the name of the Caribbee Iſlands; which Iſlands and Plantations nevertheleſs belonging indiſputably to his Majeſty, had order'd the Inhabitants of Tobacco, who are all Subjects to his Majeſty, to quit the ſame in the Space of thirty Days, giving them to underſtand, that they muſt expect Military Execution, in caſe of their noncompliance. The Nature of ſuch an Act, and the Terms in which it is conceived, puts it out of all Doubt, that it never could have proceeded from the Governor of Barbados; but that it is the Work of ſome evil diſpoſed Perſon, and determines us to wave the demanding any Satisfaction from the pretended Author of it, who, in all probability, had no Hand in it. Nevertheleſs, it being neceſſary to hinder all Perſons, of what Nation, Quality, or Condition ſoever they may be, from falling into the Snare laid for them, we declare to all the Subjects of his Majeſty, who are ſettled upon ſaid Iſland of Tobacco, as well Whites and Indians, Negroes, Molattoes, Muſtees, and all others, whom it may concern, that we will defend them againſt the Attempts that any Nation, Strangers to us, may form againſt the ſaid Iſland; and that we will ſend them ſuch a Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſion as they may ſtand in need of. We prohibit their having any Correſpondence or Dealings with the neighbouring Colonies, belonging either to the Engliſh, Dutch, or Danes, nor to ſuffer any of them to continue amongſt them, or to permit their coming on Shore on the ſaid Iſland of Tobacco, until we ſhall have ſent a commanding Officer with regular Troops, for their Protection and Defence. It is our will and pleaſure that theſe Preſents be publiſhed & ſet up in all the Quarters of the ſaid Iſland of Tobacco, that no Perſon whatever may plead Ignorance of the ſame.

Given under our Seal at Arms, and the Counter Sign of our firſt Secretary at Martinico, December 7, 1748.

Le Marquis De CAYLUS.

By His Lordſhip's Command.

MORRETT.
